

Speaker Credentials

Joyce Black, RN, PhD

Dr. Black is an Associate Professor of Nursing at the University of Nebraska. She is a fellow of the US Academy of Nursing and currently serves on the Board of the National Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel.

Tod Brindle, RN, MSc

Tod Brindle is a wound and ostomy consultant for the Virginia Commonwealth University Medical Center in Richmond, VA. His clinical specialty area includes pressure ulcer prevention in high risk populations.

Peggy Kalowes RN, PhD, CNS, FAHA

Dr. Kalowes is the Director of Nursing Research and Evidence Based Practice at Long Beach Memorial (LBM) and Miller Children's Hospital (MCH), where she has established a robust clinical Research department that has gained national and international recognition. Her research interest includes wounds and pressure ulcers, EOL, and Heart Failure.