

Barbara Ann Sellinger

Barbara Ann Sellinger has had more than 26 years of experience in all areas of labor and employment law, and is currently a Labor and Employment Law Consultant to Honeywell International, Inc. Ms. Sellinger began her career with the Department of Labor as a Labor Economist. She then worked with the NLRB Division of Judges, and also represented unions at the law firm of Sherman Dunn Cohen and Liefer. Ms. Sellinger also has extensive experience representing management through several law firm positions. She worked as a labor associate at Cohen Shapiro and Grotta Glassman and Hoffman, and was a partner at the labor and employment firm of Epstein Becker and Green. In 1983, Ms. Sellinger was hired at Nabisco, and became RJR Nabisco's Chief Labor and Litigation Counsel, working there for over 15 years. She also served as the Chief Legal Officer, Litigation and Employment and Labor and Employment at American Standard for more than 5 years.

Ms. Sellinger received her BA from Syracuse University, her Masters in Public Administration with an emphasis in Labor Relations from the Maxwell School at Syracuse University and her JD from the Washington School of Law at American University.

Ms. Sellinger is a former member of the ACC Board, former President of the New Jersey chapter of ACC. She continues to serve as an active Board member of the New Jersey Chapter.