

Martin Hopkins

Martin Hopkins's practice areas are employment and labor law (both counseling and litigation). He qualified with Eversheds LLP in 1982 and made partner in 1989.

Martin led our Commercial Litigation team in Birmingham between 1991 and 1994 before establishing our HR Group with an exclusive focus on employment and labor law where he remains to this day. In 2002 Martin was appointed Eversheds' Head of Operations for North America, co-coordinating all of our Business Development and CRM activities in this vital market.

Martin advises mainly international businesses including Cisco Systems, Gap, and Affiliated Computer Services. Martin also speaks regularly to groups of HR practitioners and strategists in North America on a range of issues impacting the workplace.
