

Stefan Corbanie

Stefan Corbanie is the Senior Office Partner of Eversheds in Brussels. He is also responsible for the employment practice in Belgium. At the wider Practice Group level, he has been tasked to coordinate and streamline the international HR offering.

His expertise covers all aspects of individual and collective employment law as well as change management issues.

He has considerable experience working with foreign companies at both Belgian and pan-European level, involving cross border operations, with a focus on information and consultation of employees' representatives and collective bargaining at the occasion of company restructurings.

Stefan was admitted as a lawyer at the Brussels Bar in 1996.

In 1998 he was appointed as an academic assistant at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel's.

In October 2003 he was appointed Deputy Judge at the Brussels' Labour Tribunal