

Catherine P. Heaven

Cate Heaven has served as the General Counsel of Winmark Corporation since May 2006, and became Winmark's Vice President and General Counsel in November 2007. Winmark is the franchisor of several value-oriented retail concepts, including Play It Again Sports(r), Once Upon A Child(r), Plato's Closet(r) and Music Go Round(r), and engages in middle market and small ticket equipment leasing through its affiliates Winmark Capital Corporation and With Business Credit, Inc., respectively. Cate advises Winmark in all substantive areas of its businesses, as well as compliance and governance issues. Before joining Winmark, Cate was an associate in the Corporate Finance group at Faegre & Benson LLP from 2004 to 2006, and a litigation associate at Anthony Ostlund & Baer from 2003 to 2004. She received her law degree from the University of Minnesota, and her undergraduate degree from the University of Kansas.
