

David L. Hallett
Managing Director

Mr. Hallett has 24 years of experience executing mergers and acquisition transactions. He has experience in a wide range of industries, including industrial products, building products, consumer products, capital goods, plastics, food, packaging, business services, energy, energy services, renewable fuels, equipment rental, and printing.

Mr. Hallett serves on the advisory board of Marquette Capital Partners, a provider of mezzanine financing. He also serves on the advisory board of Solar Plastics, Inc., a rotational molder of a wide range of plastic products. He currently is a member of the board of directors of American Automobile Association Minneapolis and serves on its Finance and Audit committees. He is a frequent speaker on mergers and acquisitions topics throughout the country.

Prior to joining Goldsmith Agio Helms, Mr. Hallett was a partner at Lindquist & Vennum, a major Minneapolis-based law firm. He provided clients with legal counsel in the areas of corporate and tax law in connection with mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Hallett served clients doing business in many industries, including manufacturing, medical devices, healthcare, food, plastics, glass, banking, finance, testing and measurement systems, and advertising. Before graduating from law school, he worked as a tax specialist at Peat, Marwick, Mitchell, & Co. and at Touche Ross & Co.

Mr. Hallett holds a bachelor of science degree in accounting, with honors, from the University of Wyoming, a juris doctorate magna cum laude from Gonzaga University School of Law, and a master of laws in taxation from the New York University School of Law.