

Karla J. Elliott

Vice President, General Counsel, Secretary
Eagle Adjusting Services, Inc.

Prior to her transition to the in-house realm, Ms. Elliott counseled and litigated on behalf of public and private companies, as well as governmental and quasi-governmental entities, as a labor and employment litigation attorney with law firms in Washington, D.C. and Indianapolis. She currently serves as Vice President, General Counsel, and corporate Secretary for Eagle Adjusting Services, Inc., a premiere property and casualty independent adjusting company. In addition to directing all corporate legal functions, Ms. Elliott is also responsible for all Human Resources, Corporate Education, and Information Technology functions at Eagle. Prior to joining Eagle, Ms. Elliott served as General Counsel for Product Action International, LLC, the leader in quality control services for the automotive industry.

Ms. Elliott received her B. A. from Purdue University, and obtained her J.D. cum laude from The John Marshall Law School in Chicago, Illinois.
