

Ely Razin

Ely Razin is the Chief Strategist for Westlaw Business, the business law platform recently launched by Westlaw. Previously, Mr. Razin founded and served as CEO of Expert Ease Software, which was acquired by Thomson West in 2004.

His background includes over 10 years of creating market leading solutions for the transactional attorney, including transactional research, knowledge management and document analysis products. He began his career as a corporate and securities attorney, and has worked on an extensive range of transactions.

He received his LL.B. from Osgoode Hall Law School of York University, his M.B.A. from the Schulich School of Business of York University and his B.A. from the University of Toronto.