

Brennan Holland

Brennan Holland is Vice President and General Counsel for Home Loan Services, Inc., a subsidiary of Merrill Lynch Bank & Trust Co., FSB. Prior to that, he was vice president and securitization counsel for World Savings Bank, FSB. He has 6 years' experience as in-house counsel and 12 years in private practice. His expertise includes residential mortgage loan servicing and securitization. In the last 6 years, he has represented his in-house clients in over $120 billion of securitization transactions as originator, depositor, servicer, and issuer. He has served as adjunct faculty with Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas teaching Securities Transactions in 2005 and 2006. Brennan holds an LL.M. degree in Banking and Financial Law from Boston University School of Law and a J.D. from Texas Tech University. Brennan currently serves as Chair of the Financial Services Committee of the Association of Corporate Counsel.