

Jennifer L. Wuollet

Jennifer assists clients with mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance and provides general corporate counsel. Her background as a certified public accountant and auditor gives her a well-rounded perspective on business operations and informs her legal advice on corporate matters.

Jennifer's M&A work includes drafting purchase agreements and other documents; negotiating purchase documents, contracts, and disclosure schedules; and performing due diligence. On behalf of borrowers, she negotiates credit agreements and the terms of loans and subordinated debt.

Jennifer's general corporate work is focused on the formation and governance of organizations; her services including attending board meetings, drafting minutes, monitoring compliance, and reviewing and negotiating contracts.

Before earning her law degree, Jennifer practiced as a certified public accountant, preparing financial statements and conducting audits at Lurie, Besikof Lapidus & Company, LLP.
