

Lee Ann Watson
BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Lee Ann Watson joined FERC in 2002 when the Office of Market Oversight and Investigations (OMOI) was established. She is the Director of the Enforcement Division of OMOI. She spent the first 20 years of her professional career as a litigation partner in a large Chicago law firm, handling complex commercial litigation. Before joining FERC, Ms. Watson also spent four years as an Assistant Counsel in the Department of Justice's Office of Professional Responsibility where she investigated allegations of professional misconduct against Department of Justice attorneys in connection with their duties to investigate and represent the government in litigation. Ms. Watson has a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana University and a law degree from Washington University School of Law.