

Biographical Statement

Norman Wain is presently employed as the Vice President – Corporate Legal Affairs, Assistant General Counsel at The Finish Line, Inc., a publicly traded billion-dollar athletic specialty retailer located in Indianapolis, Indiana. The Company owns and operates nearly 700 stores in 47 states under the Finish Line name, as well as owning and operating approximately 85 Man Alive stores in 18 states across the country. His primary responsibilities include the management and review of all corporate contracts; all marketing and promotional materials, press releases, ad approvals, contests and sweepstakes; providing the HR department with guidance on general employment issues and responses to EEOC claims; and monitoring and assisting outside counsel in litigation proceedings.

Prior to Mr. Wain joining The Finish Line, Inc., he worked in the Business & Legal Affairs Department at Writers & Artists Agency, Inc., a very prestigious Los Angeles Talent Agency. Mr. Wain spent some time in private practice (litigation), and he also worked in-house at BigShot Films International.

He is the outgoing President of the Indiana Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) and the outgoing Chair of the ACC National Small Law Department Committee. He is also a member of the American Bar Association (ABA) and the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC). Mr. Wain has been a guest lecturer in various Paralegal Educational Programs in Southern California, and is currently an Adjunct Professor at the University of Indianapolis.

He received his B.A. Degree from the University of California at Berkeley, along with Phi Beta Kappa Honors, and his J.D. Degree from the Pepperdine University School of Law.