

E-discovery Synergy Between Small Law Departments and Outside Counsel

Webcast Presenters

James Scott Kreamer
Member
Baker Sterchi Cowden & Rice L.L.C.

Mr. Kreamer is a Member of the firm and currently serves on the firm's Executive Committee. He has an extensive trial and appellate practice. Mr. Kreamer has represented clients in commercial, employment, FEOLA, fidelity and surety, insurance, lender liability, product liability and telecommunications matters both regionally and nationally. He is also lead counsel for numerous telecommunication, technology, and insurance companies. He has also represented design professionals and insurance agents, and brokers. In addition, Mr. Kreamer has authored numerous papers and has served as a lecturer and trial academy instructor with the Litigation Management College.

Jennifer Liebman, Esq.
LexisNexis Applied Discovery

Jennifer Liebman is an attorney and Corporate Discovery Specialist with the Pennsylvania office of LexisNexis Applied Discovery since 2004. She counsels corporations and their legal departments in electronic discovery matters, including records management and preservation obligations, data gathering techniques, maintaining proper chain of custody, e-discovery review alternatives and producing data to outside parties. Before joining Applied Discovery, Ms. Liebman was a litigator for 9 years with a Philadelphia boutique. Ms. Liebman is a frequent speaker on the topic of electronic discovery.

Ms. Liebman received her undergraduate degree from The Pennsylvania State University, her JD from Temple University School of Law, and is admitted to practice before the Eastern and Middle Districts of Pennsylvania, the District of New Jersey and the Third Circuit.

Bernard M. Schulte
General Counsel
Mitsubishi Fuso Truck of America, Inc.

Mr. Schulte is General Counsel of Mitsubishi Fuso Truck of America, Inc., located in Logan Township, New Jersey. MFTA is the importer and distributor of Japanese made medium duty, cab over engine, diesel trucks in the U.S. and Canada. Mr. Schulte is responsible for all day-to-day legal operations, including supervision of active litigation, dealer interactions, risk management and contracts. Before joining MFTA in 2002 as its first in-house counsel, he represented MFTA and other clients on a wide range of issues from the Washington, DC office of Reboul, MacMurray, Hewitt, Maynard & Kristal. He received a B.A. degree from Bucknell University, in 1984, and graduated from The Ohio State University College of Law in 1987.

Todd H. Silberman
Vice President and General Counsel
Express Carriers

Todd H. Silberman is Vice President and General Counsel for Express Carriers, an international trucking company, located in San Antonio, Texas. As a corporate generalist, his role is a blend of legal and business, advising principals and department heads on a myriad of issues including strategic decision making, regulatory and compliance issues, contract negotiations, employment issues, risk management, claims and litigation against the company as well as oversight of outside counsel. Currently he serves as a Council Member for the Corporate Council Section of the State Bar of Texas and is a past Chair for the Small Law Department of the Association of Corporate Counsel as well as a Past President of the South/Central Texas Chapter of ACC. Todd has spoken at law schools and numerous corporate counsel conferences. Additionally, he is on the Board of Directors at the Community Relations Council, has volunteered at the Children's Bereavement Center, and has worked as a mentor with at-risk youth. Todd received a BA from the University of Florida and is a graduate of South Texas College of Law.